O B I T U A R Y

Mr. Samuel Cotton, son of the late Robert and Annis Cotton, was born July 11, 1883 in Chatham County and departed this life June 24, 1973 at a local hospital in New York City.

At an early age, he joined Hamlet Chapel. CME Church, but upon moving to New York City, he united with the Williams Institutional CME Church, where he remained a faithful member until death.

He was a graduate of A and M College of Greensboro, N.C. (now A and T State University).

He was a retired G.P.O. Foreman, was very industrious and believed in working to accomplish a goal.

Survivors are: his widow, Mrs. Mary L. Cotton of the home; three sisters, ^{in law} Mrs. Jackie Willoughby of New York City; Mrs. Cara Harris of Washington, D.C. and Mrs. Ollie Farrar of Chapel Hill, N.C. and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

" Now the laborer's task is over
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping. "
